Lithuania's Parliament (Seimas) voted today in favor of extending Lithuania's mandate for its PRT and Special Operations Forces in Afghanistan through 2013. The resolution received strong support with 73 MPs voting in favor, 8 against and 15 abstaining. No single party voted against the measure. The GOL has maintained its' Afghanistan mission as a top priority despite severe economic pressure, with a likely 15-20 percent decline in GDP and the 2009 defense budget slashed by 19 percent compared to the previous year.
